THEATRICAL.

Special Matinee Today.

The new comedy drama, "The Darkest Hour," by Lincoln J. Carter, which will be seen at the Academy of Music for three days commencing with a special from a phe nomenally successful run in Chicago. The company which will produce the piece in this city will be identically the same in personnel and elaborate equipment as in the original company.

"The Darkest Hour" serves a distinct and highly commendable purpose, for it teaches in the eleverest and most inter-esting way imaginable, and in a thoroughly up-to-date manner, the truth of the old aying "Love will find a way."

Those Elephants at Dixie. ome on West Tioga street.

Lockhart's elephants are drawing immense crowds to the Dixie this week and are delighting every one as well. No such wonderful act has been presented in Scranton before. Mr. and Mrs. Litchfield present a charming rural comedy sketch, and the great Spaulding performs the most wonderful feats in hand balancing ever seen in this city. He is a marvel.

The sketch Mac and Ellot present entitled "The New Minister," is good and calls forth much meriment. alls forth much meriment

"The Brigadiers" at the Star.

"The Brigadiers," which will appear at the Star today is on its fourth tour and is an exemplar of its kind. The show is certain to please the most fastidious. The slogan, "it is to laugh," is lived up to from the rise to the fall of the curtain. Starting with a rollicking first part en-titled "An Extra Session," and terminat-ing with the lively skit, "A Night in Paris," it is the embodiment of all that goes to entertain. Both parts are sandwiched with an olio par excellence, every number of which is a unique and capital "show" in itself.

Mildred Holland's New Play.

From the present outlook one of the im portant events of the current theatrical season will be the appearance of Miss Mildred Holland at the Lyceum Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinee. in her new and powerful romantic produc-tion. 'The Lily and the Prince,' writ-ten with especial observance of this ar-tist's emotional qualities by Carina Jor-

In the character of "Angela," with a etting of Florentine grandeur and the commune of Italy in the sixteenth century, Miss Holland surpasses any of her pre-vious successes. From a dainty love scene n a garden of roses, midst the trickling of flowing fountains, she passes with the facility of an accomplished actress to the combre and gruesome surroundings of the potorious inquisition chamber. New Armory Sunday at 3 p. m. The Philadelphia Orchestra.

On Tuesday evening next at the Lycam theater an opportunity will be af forded the many lovers of fine music to hear the Philadelphia orchestra which with Fritz Scheel as conductor chieved a reputation which places it of par with the few great orchestras of pears as soloist and as an artist receives only praise from the leading critics. The Lyceum should be filled on the occasion of this the first of the series of concerts to be given by this orchestra in Scranton. The Philadelphia Evening Telegraph said regarding the recent concerts given in

"Mr. Scheel has certainly accomplished vonders with the Philadelphia orchestra and no true music lover, delighting in music for its own sake, no connoisseur ap reciating the high accomplishments of masterly skill, and no public-spirited citizen having an intelligent understanding of the value of the permanent orchestra will withhold from so competent a leader the commendation he has so fally earned.
